

GLOBAL TERMS (digits)

Global sounds of digits (morphemes)

A morpheme ;

- is shortest (a vowel + a consonant)
- is heard in almost all languages
- is easy and fast to learn

This PPT was presented by Dr Jacques Verre in the meeting of Global Network of Systematic Health Care on 060923 in Shengzen, China. Wording was modified by the editor in March, 2017.

10 global sounds of digits

Digits	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
English	la	le	li	lu	lo	pa	pe	pi	pu	po

Same sounds in different languages (prints) :

0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Tamil

y Ny yp Y Nyh g Ng gp G Ngh

Japanese

ラ、レ、リ、ル、ロ、バ、ベ、ピ、ブ、ポ

Chinese

啦 勒 哩 嚕 咯 啪 呖 批 嘖 坡

Finger control

Global sounds

mi300 ma43 mo33

milulala malolu molulu

'mi' denotes an operator's body, and mi300 denotes the tip of the third operating finger.
'ma' denotes a patient's body, and ma43 denotes the lower right canine tooth.
'mo' denotes point, line, plane of ma unit, and mo33 denotes facial surface of a tooth.
So this set (mi-ma-mo) specifies the contact of finger point with tooth surface for a given procedure.